Regulations for Mobile Phone Use

January 7, 2002    Passed by the Academic Affairs Meeting

1. National Chengchi University (NCCU or “the University”) formulates the NCCU Regulations for Mobile Phone Use to enhance teaching quality and maintain campus order.
2. Instructors and students shall turn off mobile phones during classes held in classrooms or sports venues to prevent disruptions to focused learning and teaching activities.
3. During assemblies or gatherings, to maintain a quiet environment and ensure smooth proceedings, instructors and students are required to turn off mobile phones or switch them to silent mode when entering auditoriums or meeting rooms.
4. For other campus locations not covered in the preceding clause, mobile phone usage shall comply with the regulations set forth by the respective management units.
5. If a student refuses to follow instructions, the teacher may confiscate the student’s mobile phone and return it after class. In severe cases, the matter may be referred to the National Chengchi University Student Award and Penalty Committee for review.
6. The Regulations shall be passed by the Academic Affairs Meeting and then promulgated and implemented. Any amendments shall be processed accordingly.
